

Master of Education – Scholarship Opportunities

Shawnee State University is meeting the needs of local teaching populations with several new scholarship opportunities for teaching professionals to earn their graduate degree in Education.

Eligible Programs

- Master of Education in Curriculum & Instruction
- Master of Education in Intervention Specialist

Scholarships are available while funds last.

Scholarship Opportunities

Returning Bears

Providing a 15% discount on total tuition for those teachers who received their undergraduate degree from Shawnee State University

3-Person Cohort

For teachers from the same school district, $1,000 discount each on total tuition redeemable during the last semester of the program.*

Regional Bears

Providing a 15% discount on total tuition for teachers residing in Adams, Brown, Gallia, Highland, Jackson, Lawrence, Pike, Ross, Scioto, and Vinton counties in Ohio, and Boyd, Carter, Elliott, Fleming, Greenup, Lawrence, Lewis, Mason, and Rowan counties in Kentucky.

6-Person Cohort

For teachers from the same school district, $3,000 discount each on total tuition redeemable during the last semester of the program.*

all people in the cohort must complete the program.*

Learn more about the Master of Education programs at Shawnee State University by visiting Shawnee.edu/education.

Questions?

CONTACT

Jodi Dunham
Director of Graduate Programs
School of Education
jdunham@shawnee.edu
(740) 351-3101